Television and Radio Production – ongoing

PERSONAL STATEMENT

I am an aspiring director and am interested in finding entry-level jobs in the TV industry to further my career as a media professional. I always work to the fullest of my ability, communicating efficiently within teams and ensuring targets are not only met, but always exceeded. Becoming a runner would provide me with invaluable experience in my career.

INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

SHOCK RADIO PRESENTER – OCTOBER 2020-ONGOING

Hosting a weekly radio show at Shock Radio, Manchester's biggest student radio station, has allowed me an exceptional insight into how radio stations operate.

KEY SKILLS AND OTHER EXPERIENCE

Studying Television and Radio Production at The University of Salford has provided me with the opportunity to increase my knowledge, skills, and experience of the industry. I have learnt how to be a production manager; what it takes to create a TV show; and, what it takes to contact and film contributors. I regularly lead teams through participative leadership – both on my university course and at my part-time job as a floor manager at McDonald's.

MCDONALD'S – JULY 2018-PRESENT (FLOOR MANAGER)

Working as a manager has provided me with plenty of transferrable skills: hitting targets, working in a fast-paced environment, delegation, cash-handling, teamwork, people-skills, organization, and legal safety checks. I also spend time training new staff members to ensure they are fully confident and independent.
